The OCCIDENTAL

The Occidental at The Willard Hotel is an iconic landmark of Washington D.C. Along with the collection of historic national architecture within the district's defining lines, the walls that encapsulate The Occidental are a place where diplomats and drinkers alike have convened over the evolution of 'The American Dream'. The Occidental's wine list is a journey around the globe celebrating allies and friends both foreign and domestic.

In celebration of The Occidental and this historic name, our wine program nods to one of America's great wineries of the same name. Established in 2011, Occidental is the Kistler family's Pinot Noir project with a singular focus - to produce world-class pinot noir from unique sites on the headlands of California's West Sonoma Coast. It boasts what can only be described as majestic terroir. The uplifted marine terraces and ridges that look out to the Pacific Ocean are ideal for growing the royal Burgundian grape varietal, Pinot Noir. Since 1978, Steve Kistler has been making world class Pinot Noir in California. Today, the Occidental vineyards represent the extreme western edge of where pinot noir can be successfully grown in California. Steve's oldest daughter Catherine joined Occidental full time in 2017 and assumed the title of winemaker in 2022. Occidental, much like The Occidental, is a reimagined perspective on the persistently remarkable – grape or place or spirit.
