The OCCIDENTAL

The Occidental at The Willard Hotel is an iconic landmark of Washington D.C. Along with the collection of historic national architecture within the district's defining lines, the walls that encapsulate The Occidental are a place where diplomats and drinkers alike have convened over the evolution of 'The American Dream'. The Occidental's wine list is a journey around the globe celebrating allies and friends both foreign and domestic.

In celebration of The Occidental and this historic name, our wine program nods to one of America's great wineries of the same name. Established in 2012, Occidental Wines is located on California's West Sonoma Coast. It boasts what can only be described as majestic terroir. The climate and soils that overlook the Pacific Ocean are ideal for growing the royal Burgundian grape varietal, Pinot Noir. Since 1978, Steve Kistler has been making world class Pinot Noir in California. After 35 years at Kistler Vinyards, Steve turned his gaze to the California Coastline. Occidental Wines, much like The Occidental, is a reimagined perspective on the persistently remarkable – grape or place or spirit.
